

The wholesale includes multiple departments as:

- field commercialists and merchandisers for receipt of orders, monitoring inventory and products positioning
- operators for order receiving and invoicing
- warehouse for order planning, preparation and issue

The Warehouse is designed and organized according to HACCP standards and it is scheduled for current satisfying of customer's needs and requirements for few days.

The principle of wholesale operation includes monitoring the anticipated needs and current influences.